

Science Curriculum Map

Our curriculum has a strong emphasis on the gradual broadening of student understanding to produce a rounded, analytic approach to viewing the world. All students follow the same learning journey through key stage 3, before moving onto a combined or separate science approach at key stage 4.

