

Teacher Assessed Grade (TAG) – Schematic / timeline of events

Please ensure all required documents are completed fully, correctly and within the detailed timescales / deadlines

Teacher Assessed Grade (TAG) released – Thursday 12th August

Student appeal window opens – Between 12th August & 3rd September, 12:30pm

Student believes their TAG is incorrect due to procedural (the shared Centre Policy was not followed correctly) or administrative (an error occurred transferring the information from assessment papers to TAG data input) error.

- A stage 1 appeal must be submitted to raise a stage 2 or 3 appeal

Stage 1 (Centre Appeal can be raised) – Between 12th August & 3rd September, 12:30pm

Stage 1 Appeal document completed (located on school website)

Evidence reviewed by centre, by 10th September – Appeal Upheld
Centre will inform student. New TAG generated

Evidence reviewed by centre, by 10th September – Appeal Rejected
Centre will inform student. TAG remains as released

Student believes their TAG is still incorrect. This is due to the centre completing an 'Error of academic judgement' or the Evidence used was incorrect. A stage 2 appeal can also be raised if the student believes, even after a successful Stage 1 appeal, their grade is still not a fair measure of their academic performance.

Stage 2 (Examination board appeal) can be raised – Between 10th September & 17th September, 12:30pm

Stage 2 Appeal document completed (located on school website)

Within 42 days

Evidence reviewed by centre – Appeal Upheld
Centre will inform student. New TAG generated

Evidence reviewed by centre – Appeal Rejected
Centre will inform student. TAG remains as released

Stage 3 (exam board appeal) student still believes the TAG incorrect.
Student makes contact with 'Exams Procedure Review Service'