

Welcome to your school: Here's the information you need to know

OUR CODE OF CONDUCT The 3 "R"s

Respect for ourselves

Every student is expected to show respect for themselves

This means that, as students, we will:

- Make the most of all learning opportunities;
- Work to the best of our ability at all times;
- Consistently demonstrate good behaviour in class and at social times;
- Wear our uniform correctly, with pride and dignity, at all times;
- Be on time, every time.

Respect for others

Every student is expected to show respect for others

This means that, as students, we will:

- Treat everyone with courtesy, kindness, interest and understanding;
- Listen carefully when a member of staff, or another student, is speaking;
- Arrive on time to every lesson;
- Allow everyone to learn in every lesson;
- Treat school buildings and property with respect at all times;
- Move around school quietly and with self control, following one way systems;
- Only use the toilets and spaces which have been allocated to our year group;
- Only eat in designated areas for eating (not in corridors or stairwells).

Responsibility for ourselves and our actions

Every Student is expected to take responsibility for ourselves and our actions

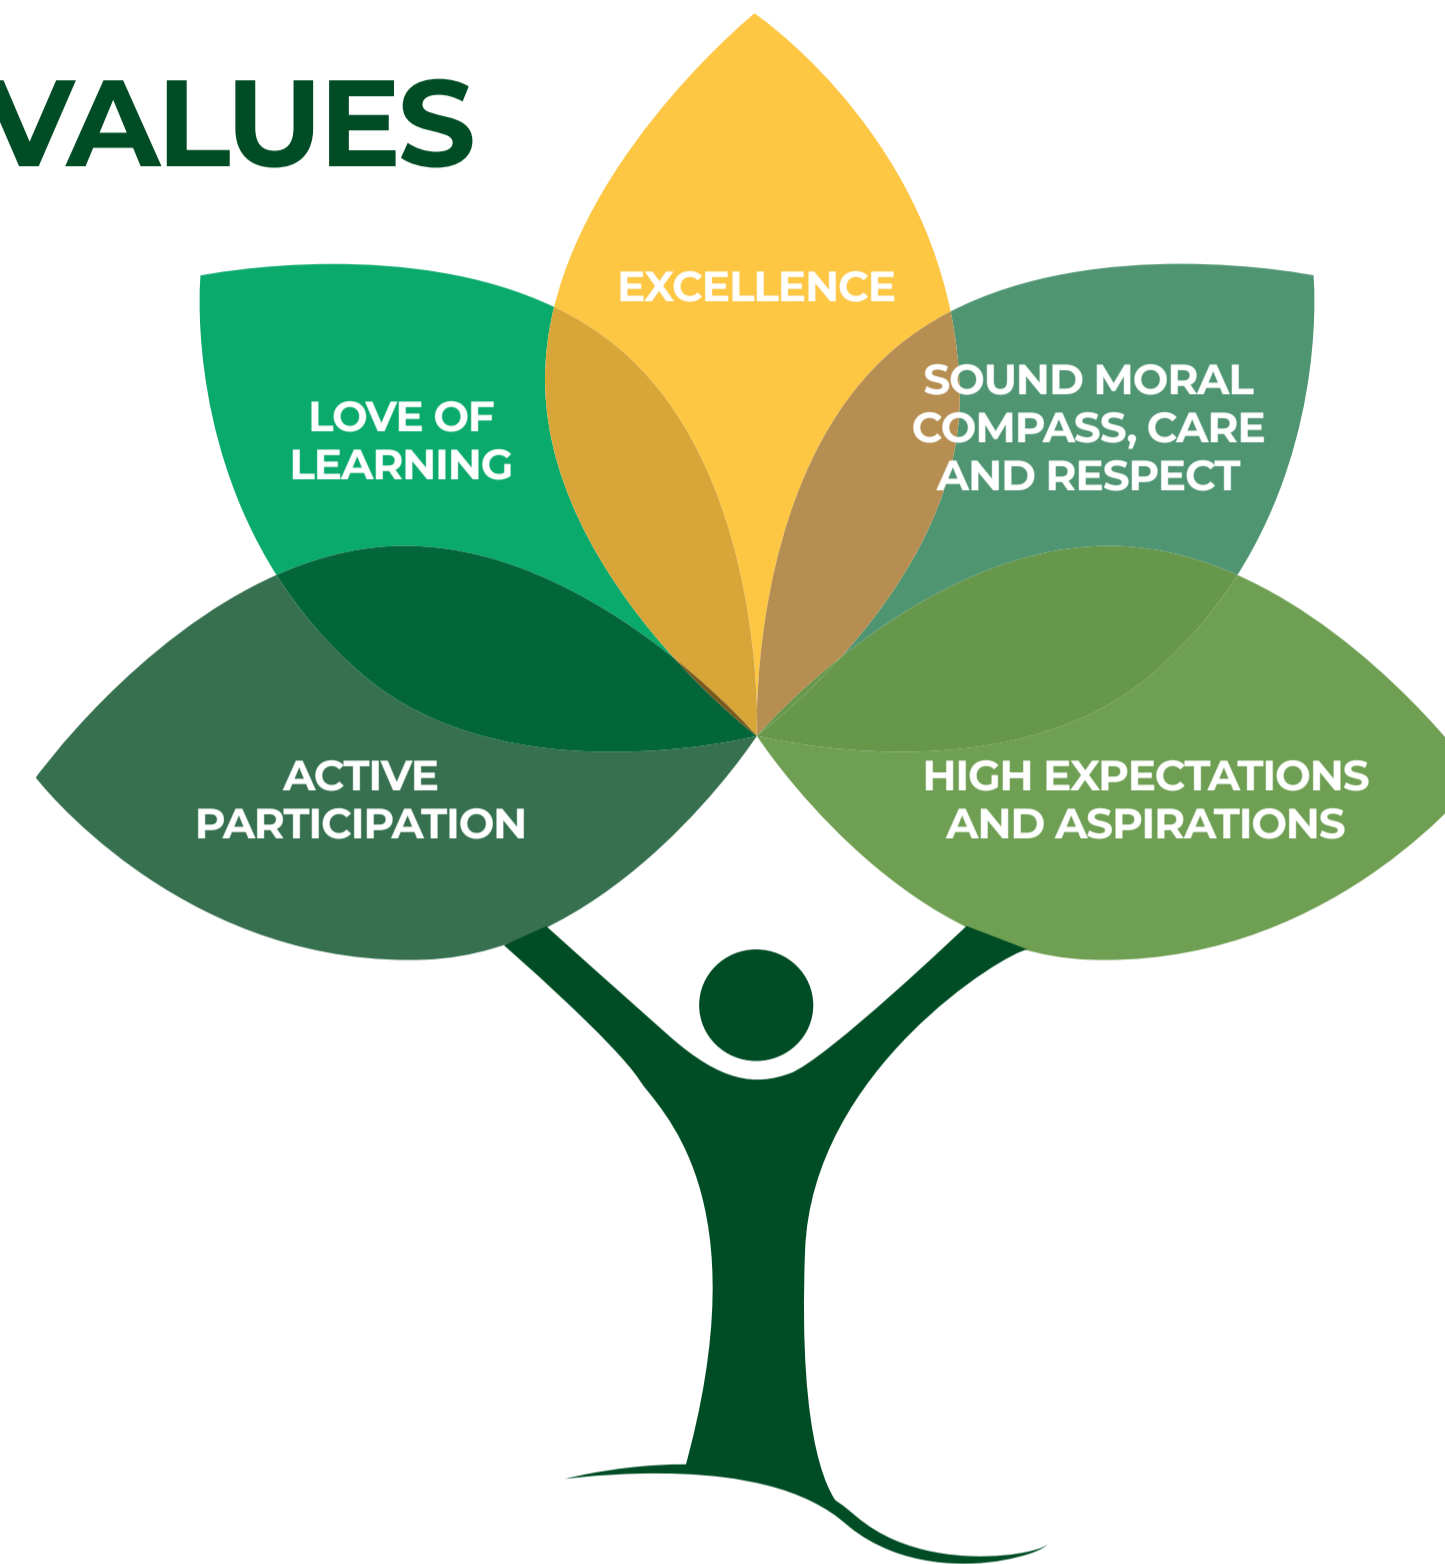

This means that, as students, we will:

- Arrive on time to school, every day;
- Be properly equipped for every lesson (pen, pencil, ruler, appropriate exercise books, PE kit);
- Follow staff instructions, first time, every time;
- Accept sanctions, if given;
- Complete all classwork and homework on time;
- Not behave in any way which brings the school into disrepute, including when outside school.

EQUALITY, DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

Tackling inequalities in society by preparing learners for life through high quality education for all.

OUR VALUES

BRITISH VALUES

Respect

We respect others and expect them to show us respect

Rule of Law

We respect the rules of the school and the rules of society

Individual Liberty

We have freedom to make choices, but take responsibility for our actions

Democracy

We all have a say and our voice is important

Tolerance of Different Cultures & Religions

We are one community that understands and cares for each other

OUR LEARNING SKILLS

SAFEGUARDING

What is Safeguarding?

- Protecting students from physical, sexual, neglect or emotional harm
- Preventing damage to students' health and development
- Making sure there is safe and effective care
- Supporting students to be safe online

Do you feel safe?

If you feel worried for yourself or a friend please contact us

The school's designated safeguarding lead is Mr McCrainor

PREVENT

Protecting people from radicalisation, extremism and terrorism is a team effort

If you have any concerns about a friend that may be at risk of radicalisation, extremism or terrorism, please contact your Progress & Development Leader, Pastoral Manager or any member of staff.
